

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

VOL. XXXIX NO. 45

STANFORD LINCOLN COUNTY, KENTUCKY. TUESDAY, JUNE 4, 1912

TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS.

Vote! Vote! Have You Voted for Your favorite? If not, Hand Her Your Subscription at Once, for She is Trying Hard to Win and Needs Every Vote She Can Possibly Get. Votes allowed on Old or New Subscriptions, So Do Not Let Her Lose For the Lack of Your Subscription!

EVERYBODY HAS SHEARS, EVERYBODY IS CLIPPING, EVERYBODY IS VOTING

Thousands of Votes are being polled Every Day and Interest in the I. J. Big Popularity Contest is Increasing Hourly. Scores of Young Ladies are Beginning to Appreciate That This Really is their Opportunity to Win a Handsome Prize With a Very Little Effort.

ALL PRIZES ARE ON DISPLAY

The Diamonds and Watches May be Seen at W. H. Mueller's Store, the Beautiful $350 Piano at the I. J. Office and the Extra Prizes at Penny's Drug Store. Contestants and their Friends are invited to Call and inspect them.

Everybody is out with the big shears these days and the votes that are clipped each day from the Interior Journal for the various ladies in the big contest run away up into the thousands.

May I have the vote from your paper?

Will you pay your subscription and give the votes to me?

Would you like to take the Interior Journal?

These are a few of the questions which are being asked hundreds of times each day in almost every part of the territory of the contest.

Lincoln county people have entered into the spirit of the contest from the very beginning and now the interest has spread over the whole territory to a marked degree. From all sections reports are being received daily of the ever increasing interest.

And by no means is the interest limited to young people. All over the territory men and women are boosting for their favorites with zeal and determination. The friends of the young ladies enrolled have opinions that their candidates will be successful and will not admit defeat until the final results have been determined and the announcement of the winners made by judges.

So great is the interest that an energetic new candidate could start and with a little active work and the assistance of friends who are watching the race could pull down a prize.

Double Vote Offer Extended

The big double vote offer which was to have closed last Saturday night has been extended until June 10th. The special offer whereby we give four extra prizes to the young ladies who turn in the most money on subscriptions between the dates of May 25th and June 10th will close on the same day as the double vote offer. These extra prizes, consisting of two beautiful 26 piece Silver Sets and two handsome Fountain pens are on display at Penny's Drug Store.

Go In To Win.

You are in this contest for the purpose of winning. Go in with a determination to win. Do not be one of those kind who no sooner begin a piece of work than they are seized with a desire to do something else, and so rush through with their work in hand with break-neck speed slighting it for the work in mind. Learn to stick. Be a perseverer, a plodder, a plunger. Don't be a victim of the "by and by" and time enough motto. Alas for the people who are just "going to do something."

If you have an ambition or purpose in mind, act on it at once. There is not an hour to waste. Do something toward the beginning. Rouse yourself from that lethargy of dreams and make a start. It is wonderful the power that comes to us after we make a start. With every postponement of that beginning just so much power is dissipated. The road to success lies along the pathway of decision and up the hill of endeavor and across the bridge of patience.

The road to defeat lies through the "Valley of Pretty Soon" and along the winding paths of "Wait Awhile."

Whatever you intend to do by and by, DO IT NOW.

Make every day count for something, not merely as an added day but as an added day with something worthily achieved.

"Count that day lost
Whose low descending sun
Views from thy hand
No worthy action done."

Neuro Killed at Somerset.

Denton Hines shot Jim Thomas, a negro, five times late Sunday afternoon, at Somerset, death resulting in an hour. The negro was porter at the Newtonian Hotel bar and was holding a horse for a man, who had gone into the saloon, when Hines walked up and fired the shots, it is alleged. Hines has made no statement as to the cause of the shooting. The negro, in a dying statement, said he never had a word with Hines in his life and knew no reason why he shot him. Hines is a son of J. Frank Hines, former jailer of Pulaski county, and brother-in-law of Chief of Police H. G. Waddell.

New Crab Orchard Postmaster

The president has appointed H. K. Logan postmaster at Crab Orchard, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of T. W. Napier, who has served long and honorably in the place. Mr. Logan is a leading republican of the East End, and was a prominent Taft man in the recent contest in this county. His friends say he is in every way qualified for the position.

Crab Orchard

Mrs. Lee Stone, of Tazewell, Tenn., is visiting her friend, Mrs. J. C. McWhorter and is very much delighted with Kentucky. She will return to her home after she drinks the Crab Orchard water a while.

We learn that Mrs. Kate Chadwick is having an especially good time with her friends in Detroit, taking boat rides and fishing in the lake. She will finish up her trip by going over in the Dominion of Canada.

The farmers in this section have planted quite a lot of tobacco this week. We had a splendid season for planting. I believe the acreage will be fully as much as it was in 1910. This last rain has been of great advantage to the corn.

Prof. T. B. Cullen went to Allensville this week on business.

Mrs. Hunt of Brookhead, has moved to Crab Orchard. She adds another good family to our community.

Hay is hard to find in this neighborhood at 60 cents per hundred; 65 cents for especially No. 1 timothy.

"Jags" still keep coming to the Keelev Institute. It seems like a Keelev would have to quit business if it is at other places like it is in Crab Orchard. You can't get it here to doctor your eyes with, much less to drink.

Five Kentucky Wesleyan students were expelled from that institution at Winchester last week Thursday, for accompanying a ball team to Millersburg and there playing in the annual commencement game, the college having placed under ban all athletics. Those expelled are Tunnice Pike, O. P. Henry, Marvin Eagle and V. L. Brown.

Kentucky's tribute to William Goebel, who was murdered twelve years ago, will be a statue to be unveiled during October of this year. The Capitol Commission has decided to place the statue at the northern approach to the Capitol at Frankfort.

DECORATION DAY

Celebration At Mt. Olive Proves a Delightful Occasion.

One of the most delightful gatherings ever held on a similar occasion was the Decoration Day celebration last week at Mt. Olive, just over the Casey county line. There were about 2,000 people present, and plenty to eat for everyone. It was one of the most sociable, religious and delightful home-coming occasions ever witnessed and greatly enjoyed by everyone.

The McKinney brass band furnished music for the occasion which was greatly appreciated by all.

The speakers of the day were, Mr. Perryman, of Middleburg, Mr. Moore of Bethel Ridge, Mr. Jess Lay, the Casey county superintendent, Mr. Henry Thomas, of Liberty, and Mr. Joe Montgomery, of Liberty.

The addresses were mostly spoken in memory of the soldiers who are dead and in recognition of the worth of those still with us.

Contest closes June 29th.

DELIGHTFUL AFFAIRS

Given at Lancaster In Honor of Beautiful Bride of This Week

Lancaster, June 3.

The following ante-nuptial entertainments have been given complimentary to the bride-elect, Miss Margaret Vene Mount, whose marriage to Mr. Thomas Mobley Wilson will be solemnized on Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents on Lexington avenue, Elder F. M. Tindler performing the ceremony.

Mrs. Robert L. Elkin entertained at luncheon bridge at her suburban home in honor of the popular June bride.

The color scheme was pink. The colonial home with its old mahogany furniture made a beautiful background for flowers from an old fashion garden, pink peonies and pink roses which were used in profusion. The table was beautiful with a large basket filled with roses and pink tulip bow tied on the mantle and placed for an artistic centerpiece; small pink candles were at each place and each guest gave a toast, or made a wish for the fair bride as they, in turn, blew out a candle. The ices were in the form of pink roses and baskets with pink roses in them. The cakes and mints were also decorated with pink roses. Artistically designed place-cards made appropriate souvenirs. The luncheon was pronounced by the guests to have been one of the most perfectly appointed social functions of the season.

A garden party was given by Miss Katherine Walter at her home in Hill Court in honor of the prospective bride; the beautiful lawn and spacious veranda made a fit scenic display of a convivial feminine assemblage.

Misses Martha and Helen Gill will be hostesses of a handsome reception on June 4th in honor of the fair June bride, Miss Margaret Vene Mount.

Mrs. J. R. Mount entertained at an elaborate dinner in honor of Mrs. John M. Mount's guest Mrs. Nicholas Rodrick, of Jacksonville, Fla.

RACE FOR MAGISTRATE

In East End Warming Up Between Two Prominent Democrats

Considerable interest has developed in the East End over the appointment of a successor to the late Squire K. D. Noakes, as magistrate for the second district of the county, which will be made by the Governor and it is expected that he will name a democrat. As the district is normally republican, the faithful democrats there are much interested in who will get this honor, as it is hoped that a man will be picked who can make a winning race for the full term this fall, as it is expected that the man named will make the race then.

So far there are but two active candidates in the field, Ward Moore and Col. J. P. Chandler, both well known democrats of that section, it is understood that both have sent in numerous signed petitions to the Governor, and that the friends of both are working with might and main for them.

"Sensational Charges"

The Interior Journal's good friends of the Danville Advocate threw a double column black type fit in Monday's issue over what it calls "sensational charges" that Judge Jere A. Sullivan has made against Congressman Harvey Helm, said charges being that Mr. Helm told somebody that he wouldn't be a candidate for re-election to congress and that he is a "failure in the lower House". The Advocate says it knows nothing of these charges but bases its information for the scareheads upon the Lancaster Record's account of the speeches delivered by the two candidates at Lancaster last Monday week.

Now, the Interior Journal regretted very much that a member of its staff was unable to be present at Lancaster and hear that joint debate. From information furnished it by innumerable Garrard democrats, whose word is as good as their bond any day, it has been given to understand that Congressman Harvey Helm made Judge Sullivan look like the veriest tyro at stump speaking and political discussion, when they met at Lancaster. In fact, as we boarded the train here last Tuesday en route to the convention at Louisville, we met a number of the Garrard democrats, bent on the same mission, who greeted us with the query why we had missed the speaking at Lancaster the day before, and assured us that we would have had the pleasure of hearing and seeing our Congressman "eat up" his distinguished opponent from Madison, as some of them pointedly and cogently described the result of the forensic encounter between the two candidates.

According to the Advocate, Congressman Helm's fault consists in that he might have told someone at some distant time that he might not be a candidate again. We know nothing of the premises, but what candidates may not have done such a thing? A candidate has a right to change his mind the same as any other man, and we believe that if he did such a thing, that Mr. Helm had as much a right to change his mind about that as one of the editors of the Advocate did to make his lightning change from one presidential candidate to another, almost in a twinkling of an eye it might be said. It's all in the game, anyway, but of course—according to his opponent, and the newspapers which are opposing Mr. Helm, any such change of mind he may have had about desiring to continue at Washington and keep up the good work he has been doing, is perfectly heinous, and should absolutely put him without the pale of further consideration by the self respecting voters of the district. There really seems no other ground for not re-electing him by a unanimous vote.

As to the other charge that is made against Congressman Helm: that he has been a failure in Congress: it is to laugh. Would Champ Clark and Oscar Underwood pick a man who had been a failure during his first two terms, to head the important Committee on Expenditures in the War Department? Would they slight such admittedly able men as Swager Sherley, Owsley Stanley, R. Y. Thomas and other members of the democratic delegation, when picking chairmen for the important committees of the new Democratic House, and select a man who had been a "failure" over the heads of all these? The man who tries to argue that Harvey Helm has been a failure in Congress, brands himself without sufficient knowledge of the current happenings of the day, to make a satisfactory justice of the peace, let alone a congressman.

Such charges are insipid. If the opposition, has nothing more reasonable as argument against the re-nomination and re-election of Congressman Helm than these, why call off the child's play and make it unanimous.

Senator Lorimer, in announcing that he would not resign, has done this country a real service, and if he clings to that intention until the question of his retention can be decided by a vote in the Senate he will have performed a really great service.

There are something over forty Senators who will vote to keep Lorimer in his tainted seat. If Lorimer had resigned, they would have escaped a record. Now that he has announced his intention to stick, they will be brought fairly to the scratch and forced to go squarely on record.

And after they vote for Lorimer, they will be retired just as soon as the people can get at them. This will be a mighty good thing for the country—for which Mr. Lorimer is entitled to credit.

The New York World declares that Woodrow Wilson is the logical candidate for the Democratic nomination for the presidency, and says he is the only one who can carry the pivotal states of New York, New Jersey and Connecticut.

Good Reason to be Enthusiastic

(Frankfort News-Journal)
Shelton M. Saufley, who formerly lived in Frankfort, and is popular here, was a prominent figure in the convention. He was a member of the Credentials Committee and one of the Administration floor leaders. He has lost none of his enthusiasm since going back to Stanford.

A TIGHT GAME

Won From Hustonville By Patched Up Stanford Nine Saturday.

A picked up Stanford team defeated the Hustonville boys in an interesting ball game here Saturday afternoon by a score of 8 to 7. For the biggest part of the game it seemed that the West End lads had the game on ice, but Stanford rallied in the seventh, and won it out. Only seven innings were played, by agreement, as the local team had several men in the game who had not played for several years and they felt that they could not go the full route.

The sporting editor of the I. J. was unable to attend this game and the box score was kindly furnished by clever Thomas Newbern, of Hustonville, and is as follows:

Announces for Circuit Clerk

The Interior Journal today announces W. M. Duncan as a candidate for the democratic nomination for Circuit Clerk of Lincoln county, subject to the primary which will be held on Saturday, August 3d. Mr. Duncan is one of the best known young democrats of the county and one who has always been found on the firing line for his party and ever ready to give of his time and means for its welfare. He has a great many friends in all sections, who will undoubtedly rally to his support.

The State Board of Equalization concluded its work last week and submitted its report to the Governor. The total amount of property assessed for State taxation is $840,479,194, as against $846,454,020 last year, yielding in taxes for this year $4,202,395, as against $4,232,269 last year. The board raised only those counties that fell behind last year's assessments and made no arbitrary raises.

A report has it that Senator W. O. Bradley will be a candidate for the next republican nomination for governor, since it is certain that he cannot be returned to the senate.

MEN'S SUITS

It is true that we must not judge a man by the Clothes he wears, and yet it is equally true that a man's personal appearance makes a great impression for or against him.

We cannot vouch for your conduct or character, but if you come to us for the clothes you wear we will vouch for your PERSONAL APPEARANCE.

While we have plenty of odds and ends in good suits from which we make our low price clothes, and are glad to sell them at a low price, still our main business is done on suits for men at $15.00 to $35.00.

They are, of course, the very cream of the Tailor shops—material good, style and workmanship the very best. We are here all the time and want you to see them.

MRS. LARAMORE TELLS TROUBLES

Lady in Goodwater Describes Her Distressing Experience and Tells How She Was Finally Relieved.

Goodwater, Mo.—"Ever since I was a little girl," says Mrs. Riley Laramore, "I was a great sufferer from dyspepsia. I suffered misery after eating, and had terrible heartburn. I thought I had to suffer this way as long as I lived, but when I began to take Theodor's Black-Draught, in small doses, every night, the heartburn was all gone in a few days, and I could eat without distress. I took two small packages in all, and although that was some time ago, the dyspepsia has not returned. I speak a good word for Theodor's Black-Draught whenever I have the opportunity."

If eating causes distress, we urge you to try Theodor's Black-Draught. It cleanses the system, helps the stomach to digest its food, regulates the bowels, and stimulates the liver. It acts gently and is without bad after-effects. Try it. Price 25c.

WOMEN SHOULD BE PROTECTED

Against So Many Surgical Operations. How Mrs. Bethune and Mrs. Moore Escaped.

Sikeston, Mo.—"For seven years I suffered everything. I was in bed for four or five days at a time every month, and so weak I could hardly walk. I cramped and had backache and headache, and was so nervous and weak that I dreaded to see anyone or have anyone move in the room. The doctors gave me medicine to ease me at those times, and said that I ought to have an operation. I would not listen to that, and when a friend of my husband told him about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it had done for his wife, I was willing to take it. Now I look the picture of health and feel like it, too. I can do my own housework, hoe my garden, and enjoy them. I can entertain company and enjoy them. I can visit when I choose, and walk as far as any ordinary woman, any day in the month. I wish I could talk to every suffering woman and girl."—Mrs. DEMA BETHUNE, Sikeston, Mo.

THE LARGEST BANKING NEWSPAPER IN THE WORLD

New York May 29, 1912.

Lincoln County National Bank, Stanford, Ky.

Gentlemen:

Every year the Roll of Honor means more - represents more - in American banking. To achieve the title is a distinction - to maintain it is a sign of success; and people like to do business with successful banks.

A place on the Roll of Honor is like a man's character - it is something money cannot buy, but is won by merit and worth alone.

Let us congratulate you on the fact that your excellent institution is represented on this year's Roll of Honor.

Approximately there are Seven Thousand Five Hundred National Banks in the United States. Only Thirteen Hundred of these are entitled to positions on the Roll of Honor.

This statement reveals the distinctive character that Roll of Honor Banks possess. It is indeed an honor to be numbered among such sterling banks, and you will no doubt appreciate the opportunity which is open to you to impress the fact on your friends and patrons, present and prospective.

Respectfully yours,

THE FINANCIER PUBLISHING CO.

The foolish way

and the wise way of saving money

There are two ways of saving your money—the foolish way and the wise way. The foolish way is to put it where fire, theft or other calamity can take it from you in a second. The wise way is to put it in a bank of good standing like ours, where it is taken care of in fire and burglar proof vaults. Follow the example of the best business men and farmers in this district—start an account here at once—it is also the straightest road to success and wealth.

The highest price since 1882 was reached by beef in the wholesale market in New York Saturday when it sold at 13½ cents a pound in bulk. It is said to mean from 1-2 to 2 cents a pound increase for prime meats at retail. The primary cause of the high prices, the wholesale men say, is the continued scarcity of cattle. Small retail dealers continue to talk of ruination of their business because consumers are greatly curtailing meat purchases.

John R. Yeager sold a bunch of 1,200 pound cattle this week to Mr. J. C. Johnston at $5.50. Meier & Huffman purchased from J. C. and M. E. Allen, of Hustonville, a bunch of 800-pound cattle at 4 cents.—Advocate.

Monte Fox, of Danville, has been buying some cattle in Mt. Sterling at record prices. Josh Owings sold to Monte Fox, seventy five head at 8 cents a pound; A. L. Tipton sold to C. C. McDonald, for the S. & S. Company, sixty two head at 7 1-2 cents a pound, and George G. Hamilton sold 216 head extra fine at $7.86 a hundred. These prices are said to be highest since the war.

F. M. Simms, who owns a 300-acre farm on the Kentucky river a few miles above Tyrone, is the champion blue grass raiser of this section. He brought to this office Monday a sample, taken from a 150-acre field, that measured three and one-half feet in length. He has rented the pasture to Danville parties for grazing purposes, and says that frequently some of the cattle get lost from view in the high blue grass.—Anderson News.

William Carter sold his farm of 35 3-4 acres to J. M. McGraw, of Danville, for $5,025. cash. This land lies on the Lebanon road between the farms of Messrs. Eldrich Beam and J. B. Caldwell. Possession given at once. Mr. Carter then bought of Mr. McGraw, his residence on East Main street in this city for $2,500, and three vacant lots in Park Place for $600. cash. Mr. Carter has moved to the property and will reside in this city.—Danville Messenger.

DISCIPLES OF CHRIST DENY ENDORSEMENT TO LEAGUE

Indiana Church With Two Hundred Thousand Members Takes Action.

Indianapolis, Ind.—(Special Correspondence to American Advance.)—At the State Convention of the denomination known as the Disciples of Christ, at Hammond, Ind., May 15, the church repudiated the Anti-Saloon League in the state. The action of this large denomination is significant, as it is one of the largest in the state of Indiana, with a membership of nearly 200,000 and with 750 preachers.

For years the church has endorsed the League and has appointed trustees to represent the church on the League Board, but there has been a growing sentiment for some time past that the league thought more of raising money than it did of killing liquor traffic, and also that it was little more than a tail to the Republican party kite in the state. This is the first time that a large denomination has assumed such an attitude towards the League in the state of Indiana.

State Chairman F. W. Lough is a member of the church and was a delegate to the convention Adv.-1t.

Frank Farmer and Miss Virgie Sorder and Henry Wilson and Miss Louise Darnel, were married last week in Rockcastle.
